WELCOME LETTER

This year's Roselle Park Art Festival will be bigger and better than ever. For the first time, there will be a beer garden and a New Orleans style 2nd line parade.

Artists & crafters will be set-up all along the way and there will be three different areas with food vendors. The street artists will be returning to demonstrate their skills live in Michael J. Mauri park. Popular band Afro Dominocano will be closing a great musical line-up on the Breakwater Stage.

The 2023 festival is not to be missed! Bring your family and friends and enjoy a day surrounded by the arts in downtown Roselle Park.

Julia & Fran Vicidomini

Hello Crafty Lady presents Stencils and Stains Creative Studio is an endearing wood sign business founded by Julia in 2016. Originating from her fascination with her Cricut cutting machine and her passion for adding a unique touch to everyday items with vinyl, the enterprise quickly evolved into an engaging community affair.

Hosting lively parties that celebrated creativity and camaraderie, Julia guided participants in exploring their artistic sides, using paints, wood stains, and pre-cut stencils to create their own unique masterpieces. These gatherings were not just about crafting; they fostered a sense of community, joy, and shared the thrill of creation.

When the pandemic necessitated social distancing, the communal aspect of Julia's business was put on pause. However, her passion for wood designs didn't falter. Julia continued to immerse herself in her craft, turning her hobby into a beacon of positivity and resilience during challenging times. Her love for crafting and her commitment to fostering creativity persist, inspiring her to continue sharing her expertise and passion with the world.

Richie Olivera Flutes

Richie Olivera started making flutes about 5 years ago. The inspiration came from the loving sounds of the native flutes from south and North America . Most of the flutes are made of by hand and I try to make them unique .

Sean O'Keefe

Sean was raised in South Plainfield New Jersey with his twin and only brother Don. As both of his grandfathers were constant and adamant tinkerers his will to work with his hands grew, and he began to draw as soon as he could hold a crayon. After graduating high school Sean attended Syracuse University where he earned his BFA in Illustration.

After graduation Sean moved to New York City, where he spent time working in restaurants and galleries while pursuing various artistic opportunities. After the birth of his daughter in 2011 he began to realize that in NYC, space is at a premium. This was only exacerbated in 2013 with the birth of his son! So after almost 20 years in NYC, Sean and family moved back into the suburbs of New Jersey.

Shadowcat Jewelry

Tom attended Glassboro State College (now Rowan University) between 1976 to 1981, majoring in art with a concentration in jewelry, under the tutelage of Dr. John Ottiano. He currently works full-time in another profession, but art and jewelry making have always been his passion. He currently works in his own workshop at home, as well as taking non-credit courses at Rowan College at Burlington County.

His work is inspired by fractal geometry & the chaotic nature of the universe. Working primarily with sterling silver, bronze and gemstones, his works incorporate reticulation, soldering, cutting and shaping the metals. He also creates pieces utilizing sterling silver and 90/10 bronze wire wrapping and weaving.

Shelia Wormack

Shelia Slappy-Wormack is a Newark Native who currently lives in New Jersey (Union County) with her son.

Shelia has a Masters in Counseling and has a love for children and music. She has traveled the world on music tours and looks forward expanding her audience with the creation of her book line.

Shells Bath & Body

Sinner valley

I'm a street artist from North bergen NJ, and my work revolves around characters I create that represents emotions and other personalities that I tend feel around me

Sora Ceballos Illustrations

I used to draw/doodle a lot while in high school, but then I "GREW UP" and stopped. Almost 10 years later, when my daughter was born, I got the urge back and became an art supplies' hoarder, literally, and started to draw again. Motherhood is the main inspiration... I celebrate motherhood.

In 2016 I decided to draw mother and daughter every day to celebrate motherhood and to celebrate my daughter... I have 1,000+ "Mother and Daughter" illustrations. I have been drawing daily since 2016.

Sora designed the 2023 Roselle Park Arts Festival poster.

Stefania Caracciolo Art

Stefania is a self-taught artist from the city of Vigevano in Italy and she has been living in the US since 2012. She worked most of her life as a fitness professional and even though drawing and painting were her first passions, even before the one for dancing, she didn't create art for years until 2020 when decided to start again and never stop. Stefania started her art business and attending fairs and art shows in the fall of 2022.

Susanne Kuneman

Susanne Kuneman is an oil painter who has studied under artists Valeri Larko, Anne Kullaf and Molly Sims. She enjoys painting a wide variety of subjects but her favorite is landscape.

She has had the opportunity to travel and paint en plein air with fellow artists in Europe and along the eastern coast of the US.

Susanne's paintings have been exhibited on county and state levels in New Jersey; receiving first place and third place awards respectively.

Her painting Kilfenora Field was selected by Guggenheim Museum Curator Lauren Hinson to be included in a juried member show at the Visual Art Center of New Jersey.

The Enchanted Knot

Just a student of the universe that discovered a passion for the fiber arts. Started with Macramé and ended with a crochet hook. I love to create enchanting whimsical pieces that can be collected or utilized in day to day styling. I hand make everything in my spare time between being working and being a mother of 3.

Theresa Wong

MUSICIANS

Afro Dominicano

Breakwater Stage: 5:40 pm

Afro Dominicano is a Latin Fusion band which centers its music into what we call Afro Caribbean soul. We blend traditional folkloric roots music from the Dominican Republic with Afro-beats, reggae, calypso, samba, Funk, Punk rock and other Caribbean rhythms. We played mostly original songs written and arranged by the Band and a few cover songs renditions to the music we grew up listening to as Dominican's living in the U.S.A. Our band is composed of Vocalists, Accordion guitar, bass, drums, Conga, Guira, and Tambora.

Miho Nobuzane Quartet

Breakwater Stage: 4:30 pm

A versatile jazz pianist, composer, & vocalist, Miho Nobuzane was born in Osaka, Japan, where she majored in classical piano during college. After she moved to New York, she began to distinguish herself immediately in the Brazilian music scene. Subsequently expanding to various music genres where she performed & toured with such well known great musicians as Bernard "pretty" Purdie, Filo Machado, Martha Reeves & the Vandellas, Hendrik Meurkens, Bakithi Kumalo, and many others.

Big Noise Brass Band

Breakwater Stage: 3:15 pm, 2nd Line at Library 1:30

New Orleans in Jersey, Introducing the Big Noise Brass Band, bringing you the many sounds and cultures of the Crescent City. The band delivers you to Mardi Gras and back from the first note to the last encore.

We are a high energy New Orleans horn band that engages audiences of all ages. This isn't your traditional jazz or swing, rhythm or blues band delivering chart music of songs by New Orleans legends. This is N'wallins funk'd out Mardi Gras Mambo with a tightness that goes well beyond their "pickup band" appearance.

Richie Ranno All Stars

Breakwater Stage: 2:10 pm

Innovators, Survivors, Legends, Masters. The core members of Richie Ranno All Stars have been described as all these as more by their fans. Founded by rock and roll guitarist extraordinaire Richie Ranno in 2001 out of the ashes of two legendary rock bands, Richie Ranno All Stars have continued to entertain fans around the country ever since.

Ranno, who was the lead guitarist in both the rock band "Stories" (#1 Billboard hit, 'Brother Louie') and Capitol Records' heavy rock band "STARZ", is joined by bandmate Joe X. Dube who was the drummer with both "Looking Glass" (#1 Billboard hit, 'Brandy (You're A Fine Girl)') and STARZ, joined together to take their decades of rock experience and history to play their favorite classic rock songs by the bands that they had toured with for most of the 70s. Both Ranno and Dube have recorded with various members of Kiss and have appeared on multiple TV and radio shows over their careers. Richie was judged by Guitar World magazine in their 2023 poll as the #5 most influential Rock Guitarist of the 70s. Once you hear him play, you'll immediately understand why.

The Dust-Ups

Breakwater Stage: 1:05pm

The Dust-Ups are an original four-piece alt.country/Americana band from north/central New Jersey. Influenced by alt.country pioneers such as Old 97's and Whiskeytown and country legends like Johnny Cash, their sound blends a down-home country sound with punk rock energy. While they all call New Jersey home today, The Dust-Ups' origins span from New Orleans (lead vocalist/rhythm guitarist Ryan Chatelain) to Quebec (bassist Stephen Swalsky).

Aside from their collection of mostly lively, catchy songs, perhaps the most intriguing aspect of their live show is watching multi-instrumentalist Joe Palmisano shift back and forth from lead guitar to pedal steel to mandolin, ensuring the band's sound never gets stale. The Dust-Ups also include drummer Alek Speck, who toured the world with the indie rock band Run Run Run. The Dust-Ups, who formed in 2022, are currently working on their debut album.

Isabelle Latorre and Reanna Saldana

Library Stage: 3:00 pm

Previously known as the Quaranteens, Isabelle and Reanna, two cousins, are excited to be back performing in this year's Arts Festival. Isabelle, a rising Junior at Magnet High School, has a strong background in theater. She has been a member of the Broadway Youth Ensemble (B.Y.E.) in New York City and has showcased her talent in various local town shows. Reanna, a graduate of Roselle Park High School and now a Junior at Rutgers, has also been actively involved in theater. She has participated in multiple Roselle Park High School annual spring musicals and town porchfest events. Both cousins bring their experience and passion for performing to the stage, making them a dynamic duo to watch out for in this year's festival.

Christina Sophia

Library Stage: 2:00 pm

Christina grew up in Roselle Park and is so grateful that the arts always felt celebrated in her community. She has fond memories of singing at school and at town events like the holiday tree lightings and Porchfest. This will be her fourth RP Arts Festival performance and she couldn't be more excited.

She's currently a senior at Drew University in Madison, NJ. She's double majoring in Theatre Arts & MCOM with an English Lit minor. In her free time, she loves writing music and will be playing her original songs at the Arts Festival.

Christina describes her music as "country influenced, singer/songwriter pop from someone you can tell had a Warped Tour phase in high school". If you can get down, she'd love to have you around.
