WELCOME LETTER

We're so glad you're here to celebrate the return of this vibrant, community-wide event! Downtown Roselle Park comes alive with creativity, featuring 65 talented artists, as part of our juried Art Walk, student artworks in the Youth Center, along with live music, performances, and hands-on activities for all ages.

As you explore, you'll discover a wide variety of original, handcrafted work—from paintings and photography to unique mixed-media pieces, jewelry, textiles, and more. Every purchase you make directly supports independent artists and helps keep the arts thriving in our community.

Be sure to take your time on Chestnut Street, enjoy live performances across two stages, and stop by our interactive art stations. Whether you're here to find something special, connect with artists, or simply soak in the atmosphere, we hope you feel inspired.

Thank you for being part of the Roselle Park Arts Festival—we're happy to have you with us.

In loving remembrance of Pam Welch Reinoso, whose vision brought the Roselle Park Arts Festival to life, and Al "Allen" Walcoff, whose passion and talent shaped its main music stage. Together, their contributions created a space where art, music, and community could thrive. We carry their spirit forward each year with deep gratitude.

YOUNG ARTISTS

Amari and Izzy Inks

Isabella Rodriguez and Amari Meky are artist from Roselle Park Highschool. Isabella is an intern at Arts Ed NJ and was the first in 8 years to go to teen arts states for her school. Amari is an Etsy seller of the month winner and has a successful shop selling their crafts.

Amari and Izzy's Ink and Threads

Crochet is my passion! I love making cute accessories that people can wear and use to express themselves. Some accolades I've acquired have been Etsy seller of the month several times.

ARTISTS

a trade ship

Parth Desai is an emerging visual artist based in Union City, NJ.

Evolving from a passion for wildlife and pet photography, Parth's artwork has developed into painting vivid representations of birds and animals in a style influenced by divisionism, often drawing inspiration from his past photographic work. Through his paintings, Parth explores the interplay between texture and form; using vibrant color palettes, and repeating patterns to blur, and simultaneously define boundaries.

Parth's artwork is styled under the pseudonym 'a trade ship

Adult & Teen Challenge

Adult and Teen Challenge New Jersey is a 10-12 month residential recovery program. The overall objective of the program is to initiate a sustainable change in values and lifestyle by applying solid moral principles in the students' lives. We are a non-profit organization, 501(c)3 certified. The mission of Teen Challenge is to provide adults and families with an effective and sustainable solution to life controlling drug and alcohol problems in order to become productive members of society. Adult and Teen Challenge helps men and women become mentally sound, emotionally balanced, socially adjusted, physically well, and spiritually alive. Our goal is to rekindle hope, renew lives and restore families. We sell beautiful artisan cutting boards made by the men and women in our program, while spreading awareness about addiction.

ArtworksRoy

I'm a New Jersey-based watercolor artist inspired by the natural world, architecture, and the quiet beauty of everyday life. My work explores landscapes, animals, marinas, and urban scenes—capturing fleeting moments with fluid brushstrokes and vibrant color. Honorable Mention 2D in Roselle Park Art edition Sep-23.

Brad's Caricatures & Fine Art

At the age of 3 years old, Brad would somehow get a hold of a blue Bic pen, climb up on the bed where his father was sleeping, and started to draw many different kinds of faces, all sizes, on the wall. When his mother came home, she awakened the father from his sleep and said, "Look, we have another artist in the family". Brad's older brother was the first artist out of the 3 children. As Brad grew older, he kept drawing and watched how his brother flourished as an artist. By watching the development of his brother's work, he understood at an early age, that it was ok to have an appreciation and do different styles of art. Therefore, Brad's journey landed him in the worlds of cartooning, fine art, caricature art, children's book illustration and modern art. He draws onsite caricatures and sells wearable art.

Bedu clothing & jewelry

Simone's Crafted By Hand Designs

I am looking forward to have a fantastic day at the Roselle Park Event. Can't wait to share my handy work and motivation words behind it.

Sora Ceballos Illustrations

I've drawn every day since January 1st, 2016. For the past decade, my nightly ritual has been filling small 5.5 x 3.5-inch watercolor sketchbooks. I started with mother-daughter themes (1000 days/1000 drawings), spent a year exploring patterns, digital illustration and whimsical girls.

My daughter has always been my greatest source of inspiration. I'm drawn to creativity in the simplest moments—a flower, a pattern, a memory, or even my mom. I love experimenting with different materials, often working on watercolor paper.

FUN FACTS:

- * In 2016, Instagram featured me on Mother's Day.
- * I completed Celebrating Motherhood, a series of 1,000 daily mother-daughter drawings.
- * Ten years later, I recreated 365 of them to reflect how my style and materials have evolved.
- * Now, in 2026, I'm entering Year 11 of Daily Drawing Challenge.

Tim Gaydos

I have been painting my entire life. Studied painting at UC Berkeley and the Accademia di Belli Arti di Brera, Milano Italy. Currently I paint landscapes and murals in acrylics and oil pastel sketches in diners.

Wickless Treasures

I escaped each workday by diving into my crafts. One day while making decoupage candles, I wondered why we had to have so many candles. With this in mind, I created a product where one LED candle can be changed to reflect each season by simply changing an outer sleeve. One candle; multiple sleeves. To my surprise, while creating this, I found I was an artist and fell in love with painting with watercolor.

Rebelle

Isabelle Latorre & Reanna Saldana

Library Stage: 4:00 pm

Isabelle Latorre is a freshman in Rutgers' Honors College, studying molecular biology & biochemistry while keeping music at her core. Raised in a musical family, she began vocal and guitar lessons early and won her first vocal competition with Calderone School of Music, which led to further performances in regional competitions, theater recitals and cultural events celebrating her Filipino heritage. Her theater work — which began at age 10 — includes off-Broadway appearances with KOTA Productions and Vanguard Theater (roles such as Ella Pador in "Camp Rock" and Ms. Henriette in "A Little Princess"), plus standout local roles like "Matilda." Though focused on science academically, she plans to minor in music and remain active in Rutgers' music community.

Reanna Saldana discovered performing in the Philippines, where music and theater became lifelong passions. She studied voice and guitar, took part in on-camera projects, spoken-word and declamation contests, dance showcases, and numerous school and community productions. At Roselle Park High School she sang in the women's choir and appeared in spring musicals (including "Beauty and the Beast" and "The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee"), and during the pandemic, she performed around town with her cousin Isabelle as the duo the Quaranteens at porchfests, markets and the Roselle Park Arts Festival. Reanna intends to keep pursuing music and musical theater through further study and beyond.

Breakwater Stage: 1:20pm

Choral Art Society of New Jersey is a group of avocational singers dedicated to the study and performance of great choral masterpieces, performing works spanning many centuries and styles. Most of the major oratorios, cantatas, and masses of the master composers have been presented during its first 60 years. The group's diverse repertoire includes Mozart's Requiem, Beethoven's Ode to Joy, John Rutter's Requiem and Mass of the Children, Bob Chilcott's Circlesong, and Martines' Dixit Dominus.

The chorus is a nonprofit, dues-paying organization. Rehearsals are held on Tuesdays from 7:30 - 10:00 pm from September to May in the Chapel at The Presbyterian Church in Westfield. Prospective singers are welcome to join us as we pursue our mission of learning and presenting the finest choral music.

Color Joy

Breakwater Stage: 4:45 pm

Described as "breathing new life" into the alt-rock band scene, Colorjoy is the vibrant, up-and-coming sound of NYC's musical youngblood. Taking inspiration from various genres, Colorjoy is a blend of Paramore, Harry Styles, Hippo Campus, and more. The members have performed at iconic venues such as the Stone Pony, Green Room 42, and Lincoln Center, among others. However, their reach extends much farther, with appearances on the Brazilian talk show Rio Claro Grupo and features in UK blogs like GigRadar and When The Horn Blows. Their highly anticipated debut album, Golden Age, was released in 2023, completely self-recorded and mixed. Currently working on their sophomore album, Colorjoy plans to unveil their revitalized and renewed sound in 2026.

Nini Iris

Breakwater Stage: 3:15 pm

Born and raised in Tbilisi, Georgia, Nini Iris grew up in a home filled with traditional Georgian folk music, a foundation that shaped her earliest artistic instincts. In 2016, Nini moved to New York to pursue her music career, immersing herself in a new creative environment that pushed her sound and vision forward.

Her journey led her to audition for NBC's Season 24 of The Voice, where her blind audition performance of "I See Red" by Everybody Loves An Outlaw earned a four-chair turn. She ultimately chose to join her longtime idol, Niall Horan. Through hard work, individuality, and fearless artistic choices, she advanced to the semifinals. Performances such as Radiohead's "Karma Police" and The Cure's "Lovesong" left viewers captivated and eager to hear her original work.

Nini's songwriting and vocal approach blend "old world" charm with dark, textured overtones and an assertive pop edge. She performs with honesty, intensity, and emotional clarity, drawing listeners out of the everyday and into her universe. Her eclectic style and powerhouse vocals continue to leave audiences wanting more.

Widely Grown

Breakwater Stage: 2:10pm

Widely Grown is a five-piece americana rock band based in Jersey City, New Jersey, formed in the wake of the pandemic by singer-songwriter James Calleo, the band brings a raw, roots-driven sound shaped by years of traveling, hitchhiking, and storytelling, with a sound that is nostalgic, yet something that can't be placed, a sound that craves Appalachia, but bleeds urban chaos.

Entirely diy and fiercely independent, Widely Grown has toured across more than 15 states over the past two years, steadily building a loyal following from the ground up. Their momentum continues to rise with performances at increasingly notable venues and a standout appearance as an "on the rise" artist at the nationally renowned floydfest. For widely grown, it's always been about honesty, hard work, and the open road.
